TEN NEW CASES AND THREE DEATHS.

Father Walsh's Illness not Yellow Fever---H. F. Hill's Address to the Union Soldiers.

MEMPHIS, Sept. 13.—Ten new cases of yellow fever, three white and seven colored have been reported this morning and three deaths since last night; Joseph Dargis and two colored. Father Walsh's physician now says he has not yellow fever. His illness was prostration from overwork. The weather is clear and pleasant. The following has been issued: "To Union soldiers and the press. Comrades assist us, our local press stamp us a fraud. We organized July 21st. The Howards furnish medicines, physicians and nurses; but no rations. President Porter furnishes rations to the people in camp, otherwise no funds. We do not deceive you." Signed: H. Hill, Chairman; R. D. Speddy, Vice-President; W. F. B. Millard, Secretary.

The Tammany Bolters Nominate John Kelly for Governor.

SYRACUSE, September 11.—The Tammany bolters gathered in Shakespeare Hall, and at 8.20 P. M. the meeting was called to order by S. G. Courtney, who said 70,000 voters in New York and 20,000 in Kings county had met there to vindicate their manhood. He arraigned Robinson as being owned by Tilden, and closed by nominating David Dudley Field as president of the Convention. Mr. Field was chosen, and on taking the chair defended the action of the Tammany delegates.

A motion that a committee of five present a State ticket to be nominated was amended to have the report advise a course of action. J. B. Haskin made a brief address, after which Mr. Dorsheimer, from the Committee on Plan of Action, reported that the committee recommended: First. That the Convention now proceed to nominate a candidate for Governor. Second. That a committee of fifteen be appointed by the Chair, and announced in future, which shall be constituted with power with reference to the remainder of the ticket as may seem to them proper.

John Kelly, of New York, was then nominated for Governor by an unanimous rising vote. Mr. Kelly, in accepting the nomination, said he did not expect to be elected Governor, but he did expect to defeat a man who had inflicted great outrages on the people of New York. He particularized many of these offenses, and said defeat would tend to purify the party.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

Military Called For.

LONDON, September 13.—The following is published in a special edition of the daily Telegraph this evening:

SIMLA, September 13.—General Roberts has telegraphed for four additional regiments. The military authorities have decided to increase both Kuram and Khyber columns to twelve thousand men each. It has been decided that there is no possibility of a sudden dash on Cabul, but it is believed that there will be an early collision between the outposts. Disquiet among the border tribes is increasing. The vagueness of the communication brought by a messenger of the Ameer to Alikheyl causes fears in some quarters that he has already alienated himself from the alliance.

The Lancashire Strike.

LONDON, September 13.—The North Lancashire Cotton Operatives' Association have issued an energetic appeal to masters against a contemplated reduction of wages, urging that it would be useless for an improvement of trade, and that the latter object would be better obtained by the adoption of a universal system of short time working for a few months. Twenty mills are now practically closed at Ashton, because of the strike, which is also assuming serious proportions at Mossley.

Fall of Buildings.

NEW YORK, September 13.—Two buildings in West Fourteenth street, which were being taken down with the intention of replacing them with others, fell suddenly this afternoon with a great crash, burying five or six workmen in the ruins. One has been taken out seriously injured. The others in the debris are still alive, but have not yet been reached.

A Vain Effort at Reassurance.

LONDON, Sept. 12.—The Times in a leading editorial says: Nothing is known up to the present time to confirm rumors of a general rising in Afghanistan. We are justified in believing that the condition of the country has become no worse since the first outbreak.

The Fire Record.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 13.—Buildings Nos. 112, 114 and 116 Exchange alley, were destroyed by fire to-day. Loss $10,000—Insured.

What the Papers are Doing.

LONDON, September 13.—The continental newspapers, especially those of Paris, continue to publish all kinds of alarming rumors relative to relations between Germany and Russia.

Death of an ex-Congressman.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., September 13.—Hon. Chapin Hall, former Congressman from Pennsylvania, a man of wealth and extensive business connections, and recently residing in Newark, N. J., is dead; aged 63 years.

Canadian Affairs.

QUEBEC, September 13.—Hon. Mr. Chauveau, Provincial Secretary, has resigned. The other liberal members will follow, after which probably a coalition government will be formed, headed by Chauveau and Chapleau.

North Carolina's Average.

WASHINGTON, September 13.—The report of the commissioner of education shows that the annual expense per capita for public school pupils is lowest in North Carolina, being $1.39. The highest cost per capita is in the Cherokee tribe, Indian Territory, where it reaches $36.

Returned to her First Love.

NORFOLK, September 13.—The steamer N. P. Banks, which beached opposite the naval hospital August 18th, was gotten off to-day in good condition.

From Zululand.

CAPETOWN, August 26.—The pursuit of King Cetewayo continues hotly. He has split up his party and taken to the bush. His pursuers have been within three miles of him, and have seen some members of his following. General Wolseley has had a meeting with northern chiefs, at which he informed them that the only obstacle to the settlement of peace, is the failure to capture Cetewayo, and that any chief harboring Cetewayo will be punished. Lord Gifford captured a native who has promised to show him the king's hiding place. The bush, wherein he is supposed to be secreted, is now being surrounded by three hundred men.

A Small Pox Epidemic.

GALVESTON, September 13.—A News special from Rio Grande city reports that small pox is epidemic in New Mexico, fifteen deaths having occurred in one day. The disease has reached Roma, Texas, where ten children have died from it. The ranches in that vicinity are reported as badly infected. A special to the same paper, from Hallettsville, Texas, says a Sioux Indian named Packett, was executed there in the presence of two thousand spectators, for the murder of Frank Edwards, a negro, in February 1877.

LATE NEWS NOTES.

The postoffice at Canandaigua, New York, was robbed of $2,000 in money on Wednesday night.

Chester A. Arthur has been elected chairman of the Republican State committee of New York.

W. P. Ragland, assistant State Treasurer of Virginia, died Friday at Appomattox Court House.

The steamship Gallia, which sailed from New York Wednesday, took out 128 saloon passengers, an unusually large list for this time of year.

It is now believed that Wilson Prudhomme, who was found dead on the deck of the steamboat Belle, at New York, on Wednesday, was shot by river thieves.

Asa Gunn, the Defoor cut-throat, wonders why the Southern ladies don't send him beautiful bouquets as the northern ladies favored Chastine Cox, the Hull villain.

In the Social Science Association meeting at Saratoga, N. Y., Friday, resolutions were adopted in favor of the metric system, and an international coinage, founded on the gram weight of gold nine-tenths fine.

Joseph A. Blair, of Montclair, N. J., who shot and killed his coachman, John Armstrong, and was indicted for murder in the first degree, was arraigned in court Friday, and said in a distinct voice, "I am not guilty." The trial was fixed for Monday, October 6th.

The latest returns from six or seven additional towns in Maine to those already reported show that the opposition leads Davis 320 votes. There are fifty-six towns now to be heard from.

In an anticipation of an unusual arrival of foreign coin and bullion at New York, the Secretary of the Treasury recently increased the bullion fund at the assay office $10,000,000. This action was taken in order to facilitate the prompt exchange of the foreign coin for United States legal-tenders.

The Republican city convention of Baltimore Thursday night nominated William J. Hooper, of the firm of William E. Hooper & Co., for mayor. The nomination of candidates for other city offices was postponed until the 29th instant.

Mr. M. K. Grant, of Boyertown, put a jar containing sixty turtle eggs on a shelf last June. A few days ago he noticed a little turtle's head sticking out of one of these eggs. He immediately placed them in warm sand, and the result is thirty little turtles alive and kicking.

The Mammoth Cave of Kentucky was was sold on Saturday last to a company of Eastern capitalists, the price paid being $2000,000. It is said that the company will complete the railroad from Glasgow junction to the cave, and make other improvements for the attraction of visitors.

The owners of the schooner A. R. Weeks which was sunk in collision with the steamship Farnley, in the Chesapeake bay, off Sharp's Island, on Monday, have filed a libel in the United States District Court against the steamship for damages for the collision, laid at $31,000. A libel for the value of the cargo will also be filed.

The Bradford Era says: "A pipe line from McKean county to connect the lower oil field is considered among the probabilities. Should this be accomplished it will be for the purpose of securing more tankage capacity. The tankage now in process of construction in the Bradford region by pipe line and individual authority will be made equal to supply the demands that will be made for storage during the coming winter."

Taxing Machinery.

Correspondence of the News.

A short time ago in one of our cities ten men were working for $1.50 a day; a machine was put in which with the aid of one man at a dollar a day and a boy at fifty cents a day is now doing all the work of the ten men. The ten men are walking around.

They were notified by the delinquent tax-collector that if they did not pay their taxes their little homes would be sold out.

The employer saves $13 per day in labor, he pays no more taxes on his house where the machine is, which disemployed these ten men. The ten men's taxes are not reduced. They have no work.

Glorious country! Best government the sun ever shone on!

The employer saves $78 a week in wages $4,055 a year. Very nice. The men are assessed at $60 a year a piece. Tax $500 in all. The machine took their work from them. Suppose we make the machine pay their taxes; why not? The employer would still save $3,546 in labor. I know there are a great many people, even laborers, that will say this is not right; but does it seem right that steam power should disemploy labor, increase idleness, reduce wages, and then get off without paying our taxes, while it prevents us from earning a dollar to pay taxes with, or getting provisions to feed our families? In the same city a man fell dead instantly, a crowd gathered around him; was he drunk? No his pale face indicated death; he was picked up dead. The coroner was sent for; a doctor was called to examine. The verdict was, "died from starvation." Yes, starvation. He was an industrious mechanic; a father of five children; a husband of a devoted wife; wife and children were at home too weak and sick to beg. This sad story teaches us a lesson of its own: that machinery is throwing half of our mechanics out of employment and starving them and their families while they are taxed and the machine not. This is one of a hundred cases of the same sort, and only one branch of oppression for the laboring classes. The only remedy is in labor organizations.

Telephonic.

Wilmington Star, 13th.

We learn that a coalition has been formed between the National Bell Telephone Company and the Edison Telephone Company, the exact particulars of which are as yet withheld. It is supposed that the business in this city will be under one management and the public interest will not be allowed to suffer by the new arrangement. Further particulars will be made known in a day or two.

THE CLOSING SCENES.

THE LAST DAY OF THE NEW YORK CONVENTION.

Clarkson N. Potter Nominated for Lieutenant Governor—Further Resolutions Adopted.

Baltimore Sun, 12th.

The ballot resulted as follows: Whole number of votes 301, necessary for a choice 151, of which Robinson received 243, Slocum 56, Clarkson N. Potter 1, Horatio Seymour 1. So the chairman declared Lucas Robinson to be the nominee for Governor.

Mr. Cowan moved that the nomination be made unanimous, which was carried, with two or three objections.

On motion of Mr. Faulkner, of Livingston, Hon. Clarkson N. Potter, of Westchester, was nominated for Lieutenant Governor by acclamation, with a single "no." Allen C. Beach was renominated by acclamation for Secretary of State; also Mr. Olcott for Comptroller, and James Mackin for State Treasurer. Horatio Seymour, Jr., was nominated by acclamation for State engineer, and A. Schoonmaker was renominated for Attorney General.

Mr. Reeves, of Suffolk, moved the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Democratic organizations of the city and county of New York are hereby requested and authorized by this convention to organize the Democratic voters of that city in support of the nominees of the Democratic party of the State of New York. Adopted.

Mr. Tabor, of Queen's county, moved the following:

WHEREAS, The delegates of the organization in the Democratic party in the city and county of New York, known as the Tammany Hall organization, after having been admitted to seats in the convention, and having participated on terms of exact equality with the representatives of all other county and district organizations in the proceedings of this convention until the time had arrived for making the nominations to the various offices to be voted for at the next general election in this State; and whereas, the delegates representing such organization did before any nomination was made, and without just cause or provocation, and on the mere pretext and suspicion that the convention was about to proceed to the nomination of a candidate for the office of the Governor; and whereas, such delegates did declare that they would oppose and defeat, if it lay in their power to do so, the nominee of this convention for the office of Governor in the event that the choice should result in the renomination of the present able and efficient Governor, thereby bidding defiance to the will of the State organization and its representatives in convention assembled; and whereas, such voluntary withdrawal and setting at defiance the will of the Democratic party, as represented by its delegates in convention assembled, is deemed to sever all connection between said organization and the regular State organization of the Democratic party in this State; therefore

Be it resolved, That the Democratic party of this State will not hereafter acknowledge or grant to such organization any prestige or preference over any other Democratic organization in said city and county of New York, but will hear and decide upon the merits of all claims to representation in future State conventions as the same may arise and be presented by those claiming admission from the respective assembly districts in said county. Adopted.

The convention then adjourned sine die.

Crops in Warren.

Warrenton Gazette, 12th,

From some personal observations and a good deal of information, the following seems to be the condition of the crops in this county; cotton hardly to exceed two-thirds of a crop, some estimate it at not more than one-half but this is evidently too low; corn three fourths, late corn and low ground corn good, but early upland corn materially injured; tobacco crop fair, but the area planted small. The present cold nights are seriously injuring the cotton.

STATE NEWS.

CARTERET.

BEAUFORT, September 12.—Weather is warm. Crops are badly damaged; the majority totally destroyed.

Trade, owing to the effect of the storm, is dull.

There were to be a number of marriages this fall, but owing to the terrible storm all have been postponed.

Jim Felton was tried in a magistrate's court for barn-burning, and the evidence was sufficient to commit him for trial.

Sheriff John D. Davis will resign on the first Monday in October, on account of the extreme poverty of our people. He is a good man and will not distress them.

Mrs. Mary Moon is now holding meetings at Ann street Methodist Episcopal church, and all are praying for her success.

An excursion train, consisting of twenty-three Friends (Quakers), arrived here this week, Mrs. Moon among them, and are enjoying themselves. Miss Leah Holland is here on a visit to relatives.

Blue fishing is good; come down.

More help is needed for our distressed people. All that has been received has been expended. E. O. N.

JOHNSTON.

CLAYTON, September 13.—Urius Baucom, three miles from here, died yesterday morning, aged about eighty-seven. He had lived a quiet, industrious life, and had accumulated quite an estate. He was peculiar in many respect, but honest in every relation.

Some of our merchants are now North; some now opening new stock. Robertson & O'Neil have just received a large stock of dry goods and notions.

Quite a number will be baptized in Neuse river near here to-morrow, by Rev. George Dowell, Baptist. W.

FORSYTHE COUNTY.

WINSTON, Sept. 12.—The weather is nights cold and days hot. Trade is as usual lively. The building rush is now in full blast. Mr. Causey has sold his residence on Liberty Street to a gentleman from Reidsville.

Messrs Brown & Carter, proprietors of Brown's warehouse, have purchased the residence of Mr. C. Hamlin on Main Street, will remove the brick dwelling to the rear, and erect a block of buildings consisting of stores underneath and a large town hall above. This besides adding greatly to the beauty of our town and facilities of our trade, will supply a want long felt in our town.

Tises Hall, though quite an acquisition, is entirely too small, besides being poorly constructed as to light and ventilation, as well as to auditory and theatrical wants.

On Wednesday evening Mr. John Shephard and Miss Mary A. Haskings were married by Rev. Mr. Sutton; and on Thursday morning a light complexion couple of darkies, (Waugh, of Waughtown, and Webb, of Winston), both said to be well-educated, drove up to the Presbyterian church accompanied by a full retinue of darkies of the same light color, and were married. They drove off fantastically amid gauze and lace etc., making the dashiest show of the season. They spend their honeymoon in Charlotte.

One old darkie exclaimed, as they drove off," Well, sartin the bottom rale's on top now. Speck tha got thim 40 acres and mule."

THE ROWAN REUNION.

Letter of General Sherman asking to be Excused.

Salisbury Watchman, 11th.

The executive committee of the Rowan Reunion Association has received among other responses to invitations extended the following from General W. T. Sherman:

H'DQ'RS ARMY UNITED STATES,
WASHINGTON, D. C.,
September 2, 1879.

Messrs. G. A. Bingham, A. G. Halyburton, John A. Ramsay and Charles Price, Salisbury, N. C.:

GENTLEMEN: I beg to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 30th, enclosing a circular and inviting me to unite with the survivors of the late civil war, in a reunion at Salisbury, N. C., on Thursday, October 23, 1879.

The time is too remote for me to make a promise, but I assure you that it would be most agreeable to me personally and socially to meet you on any suitable occasion.

There is no use in my mincing terms. Whenever and wherever the honest men of North Carolina meet to allay sectional and party animosities, and to cultivate feelings of fraternity and respect for their fellow citizens of the United States, it will be to me most tempting to come to Salisbury. I would far prefer to come alone, than as before with a vast army, leaving desolation behind, but I must not be construed as assenting to the proposition that Confederate and Union men were alike worthy of a celebration for the terrible history of 1861-65.

I would much prefer to come on some civic occasion when all are absolutely equal, all alike interested in the present and future glory of our common country. There were very few Union soldiers in North Carolina during the war, though we believe the people generally were opposed to secession and war; so that your meeting, if confined to surviving soldiers of North Carolina, will be in fact a "Confederate Reunion," where I would certainly be out of place. All soldiers in their social reunions glorify their deeds of heroism, and this reunion will hardly be an exception; and it would be a strange sight for General Sherman to cheer the victories of his enemies, and respond to the claim that because the soldiers of North Carolina were brave and true to their State and section, their cause was as sacred as ours, which finally triumphed, and made our Union more glorious and more resplendent than before. Were I present, and you should suppress this natural feeling, I would feel myself an intruder, marring the natural happiness of a festive occasion.

I know that the soldier element were the first to lay aside the angry partisan feelings of the war, and are now leaders in the new epoch which is sure to add wealth and prosperity to our whole country, and when some occasion arises when we may all meet on common ground in North Carolina, to celebrate some revolutionary event, or to encourage some modern enterprise, it will give me great pleasure to come to Salisbury, to Raleigh, to Guilford Court House, or any other place in the "Old North State." Wishing you an agreeable reunion, but asking you to excuse me, I am, with respect,

Yours most truly,
W. T. SHERMAN, General.

COLLISION AT SEA.

A Bark Sunk by the Belgenland---Five Lives Lost.

Philadelphia Times, 12th.

The steamer Belgenland, of the Red Star line, arrived here yesterday from Antwerp, with one hundred and ten cabin, and three hundred and sixty steerage passengers, having made the trip from dock to dock in a little over twelve days, and the ocean voyage in ten days, five hours and forty-five minutes, the quickest passage on record between Antwerp and the United States. Among her cabin passengers were Cenoral C. H. T. Collis and Mrs. Collis, Baron Grindel, Belgian Minister to Mexico, with his secretary; Count A. du Chantel, Dr. John Wilson, United States Consul at Brussels, and Colonel John Riley Weaver, United States Consul at Vienna.

At two o'clock in the morning of September 3d, when four days out, the Belgenland ran into the Norwegian bark Luna, laden with sugar and bound from Porto Rico to Queenstown. The bark was cut in two, between the fore and mainmasts. The forward part sank almost immediately, while the stern, partly submerged, floated off with a part of the mizzenmast still standing. When the steamer struck the carpenter of the bark was at the wheel. He was knocked over and drowned, and the second mate and the steward, together with two seamen, were also drowned. All the rest of the officers and crew were rescued by the Belgenland, which had reversed her engines, gone back to the wreck and waited until it was determined that there were no more lives to be saved. The steamer sustained no damage in her hull, but the rail, a part of the rigging and one or two of the davits were slightly injured.

There was a mist and slight rain. The steamer was going at full speed and the bark at about seven and a half knots. The second officer of the steamer had the deck. The bark ran right across the steamer's bows, and received the blow upon her port side. The captain of the steamer, Jackson, when the the shock was felt, jumped from his berth and ordered the after boats to be cleared away and the carpenter to sound the pumps. The boat on the lee quarter reached the water first, with the second officer, Mr. Wismer, and four men, and was quickly followed by the boat from the weather quarter with five men, and Mr. King, the chief officer, who was asleep in his room the time the vessel struck. The first boat pulled directly astern and rescued a man from a floating water cask, and then pulled for that part of the wreck with mizzenmast on it. The second boat had steered directly for this wreck, and had already picked up the captain of the bark from a floating spar within a foot of the mast and taken off the mate and two seamen, who were clinging to the rigging. This was a difficult and perilous act, as the boat was liable to be stove in or capsized by the wrecked material, of which the water was full. Chief Officer King and his men, however, succeeded in getting off the wrecked seamen.

PAY THE PREACHER.

"A NEW WAY TO PAY CHURCH DEBTS."

A Contribution Collector that understands his Business—A Hard-up Congregation.

Brookiyn Eagle.

The colored brethren of the Zion Methodist Episcopal Church, at Kingston, seem to have discovered "a new way to pay old debts." They engaged the Rev. M. H. Ross as pastor, and he remained with them for two years from the spring of 1877. He was promised a a salary of $300 a year and a parsonage, rent free. At the end of his first year's labors he had not received a dollar of his salary, and was sued by his landlord for rent, which he had to pay. At the end of his second year he had never received any of his two years' salary, and a friend who had gone bail for his rent, had to arrange for its payment by installments. Under these straitened circumstances the church resolved on an appeal to the public, and sent a collector from door to door. He collected the sum of $6.50, but sent in his bill for a balance of ten cents, charging the church $3.50 for his expenses, $1.30 for his percentage on collections, and $1.80 for his percentage on "amount uncollected." The last item was certainly unique, but anyhow he handed the church nothing, and claimed ten cents more for himself. Another and larger effort at financial emancipation was then made by the church. A camp meeting was held in August, 1878, and the receipts amounted to $671.06, but as the expenses were $780.59, there was a deficit of $109.53. Similar results attended various cake walks and concerts, the church being always worse off than before, in spite of good patronage and fair receipts. At this rate the poor dominie's chances of getting his two years' arrears of salary were growing "small by degrees and beautifully less." It is not wonderful that he looked around him for "fresh fields and pastures new" and accepted a call from the African Methodist Episcopal Church at Newburgh. This was more than his appreciative flock at Kingston could stand. It was true they paid him only in promises which did not feed and clothe him, but Brother Ross was an eloquent preacher, and they resolved that if he would not save the colored souls of Kingston he should not save those of Newburgh. So, as an other "new way to pay old debts" and get even with their lamented and "resigned" pastor, they brought charges against him of financial mismanagement, and the conference, on their ex parte statements, has suspended him from the ministry. The grounds of the charges are that the unfortunate preacher contracted sundry debts in Kingston which he has not paid; but it is surely pertinent to ask how he could be expected to pay others when his church during two years never paid him. We should think the brother is scarcely enamored of the ministerial office. After being cheated out of his salary and rent, it is rather rough to be accused of financial mismanagement, and it looks like adding insult to injury for his "dog in the manger" congregation, who would neither help him themselves nor allow the church at Newburgh to do so, to get him suspended from the pulpit for not paying his debts. These colored brethren recall the proverb about "the pot calling the kettle "black."

A BIG BURGLARY.

A Farmer Robbed of His Entire Possessions.

Charlotte Observer, 13th.

One of the most extensive burglaries ever committed in this county was perpetrated night before last on the residence of Mr. William Ballard, who lives in Crab Orchard township, near Philadelphia church. By means, it is presumed, of a false key, the burglars entered his bed-room, where he and other members of his family were sleeping, and took from it a trunk containing all the money he had, about $700. The trunk was carried out to the stable, about fifty yards from the dwelling, and broken open, and all the money taken. Everything else was left. They took his pants, which were on a chair near the bed on which he was sleeping, and rifled the pockets, getting three or four dollars more in change. These, together with other garments belonging to different members of the family, were taken into the stable and left there, showing that the thieves were after nothing else but money.

So far, there is not the slightest clue. Mr. Ballard is a farmer, lives very plainly, and few, if any persons in the neighborhood were aware of the fact that he possessed this amount of money, or anything like it. The money stolen was all he had in the world, and was the fruit of long years of arduous labor—a fund which he had been accumulating for his old age. He doesn't know whom to suspect, and is not now able to push an investigation of the matter.

The Logic of Split-Hickory.

Norfolk Landmark.

The people of North Carolina are a downright, straightforward folk, who stand very little "foolishness," and in illustration of this we are told that their remedy for the disgusting practices of Mormonism is beautifully simple and vigorous. When the Saints appear with their sermons on, and practices of, polygamy, the Carolinians respond by producing split-hickories, which they apply with impartial emphasis to the backs of the philosophers. This may be rather a primitive way of replying to an argument; but it has the merit of clearing out the Mormons and ending the discussion.

If Taken in Time.

Warrenton News.

The Raleigh NEWS is publishing a series of articles representing the views of leading merchants of that city in regard to the trade outlook for the fall, and the capabilities of the dealers to compete with cities farther North. We are glad to see from the expression of sentiment, so far, that Raleigh is determined to be a wholesale market. Raleigh ought not only to be that, but a great manufacturing centre as well. Raleigh is as well located for the manufacture of tobacco as any town in North Carolina, and if the right steps are taken in time the tobacco interest will center there.

Kearney's Eloquence the Night Before Election.

In his last speech before the California election Denis Kearney said: The thieves and the plunderers, and the banditti, the thugs, the assassins, the gamblers, the daylight robbers and the midnight burglars, the corrupt judges, the perjured witnesses, the bribed jurors, the liars, the slanderers, the bilks, honorable and dishonorable, the water thieves, the land pirates, the gas extortionists, coolie employers, the highbinders, the Joss worshippers, the thieving detective, the journalistic assassins, the swindling bank-smashers, political cut-throats, bummers, pickpockets, the Shylocks and usurious robbers, the mortgage wreckers and plunderers of poor men, the destroyers of peace and the seducers of innocent girls, the breakers up of happy homes, bludgeon murderers, ruffian villians, charterless vagabonds, and the lawless and criminal element generally, are all banded together, with one fell bond of wickedness and corruption, to oppress and plunder the people, and they have grown so rich and so powerful with the fruits of their wickedness that the government, the courts and the public press are entirely within their grasp and under their control. The Almighty God rained down the fires of His wrath upon the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, and destroyed them for their wickedness; but I tell you, my friends, that Sodom and Gomorrah were virtuous communities compared to San Francisco at this day.

OUTRAGE BY A TRAMP.

He Attacks a Defenseless Woman and Ransacks Her House.

Philadelphia Times.

READING, Sept. 11.—Particulars have just been received here of a brutal outrage, perpetrated on the person of Mrs. Mary Nagle, living near Reinholdsville, a station on the Reading & Columbia Railroad, about ten miles from this city. The facts are as follows: During the early part of last evening Mrs. Nagle was sitting at the window in one of the lower rooms, sewing, when a violent knock was made on the door by some person from the outside. In response to a question as to who was there the party continued hammering at the door demanding admittance. The now thoroughly-frightened woman, who was alone in the house, saw from the window that it was a big, burly tramp she had to deal with. She then tried to barricade the door, but the man proved too strong and determined.

In a few moments he had battered the door down and thus effected an entrance. He then demanded what money there was in the house, and when told there was none he became more persistent in his demands, and finally the big brute struck the defenseless woman several severe blows over the head, felling her to the floor in an insensible condition. He then bound and gagged her with ropes, and taking a tallow dip ransacked the house from top to bottom, securing as his booty about $60 in gold and silver, after which he decamped. Before doing so, however, he emptied several buckets of water over the woman and also left all of the doors in the house standing ajar.

The victim of the outrage was not discovered until some time after, when some neighbors were passing the house and, seeing the doors open, went to investigate the cause, when the womau was found still unconscious. Medical aid was summoned, when it was found that the woman was severely, but not fatally hurt, her head, arms and body being literally covered with bruises. There is great excitement in the neighborhood over the affair and a party are out searching the country for the villain. He is described as being about forty years of age and wore a dark suit of clothes. If caught he will be roughly handled.

FABLES—THIRD SERIES.

IX—The Renominated Sheep-dog and the Black Sheep.

New York World.

A Black Sheep, observing that the Shepherd was about to renominate to the care of the Flock the Sheep-dog who had long been its faithful Guardian, protested vehemently against this Action. "I care not what other Dog you may select," said the Sheep, "but if you renominate him I will stay out of the fold and form a Coalition with the Wolves." The Shepherd, paying no Heed to these Threats, the Black Sheep set off toward a precipitous Mountain bleating aloud at every Step that he would never return to the Fold." "Will you dismiss that Dog?" he bleated after he had scrambled up the first Acclivity; "You wont? Well, I will see the Chamois and go him one higher." Again when he had reached the Region of Eternal Snows, the Sheep repeated his Threat, but no Notice was taken of it. Maddened with Rage he scaled a Mountain-Summit 22,000 Feet high, and was about to hire a Balloon, when he observed the rest of the Flock proceeding to the Fold under the guardianship of the Renominated Sheep-dog. Bounding down the Mountain-side he hastened across the Plain, and rejoined his Companions. "I had hoped we had lost you," said the Shepherd, coldly, and the other Sheep said to the Returned Prodigal, "Do you know what we thought when we saw you bolting up the Hill?" "No!" he replied; "did you think I was never going to come back?" "Ah, no," answered his Fellows, "because we knew you would, but we were struck with the Fact that the further you went the smaller you seemed to get."

How Blaine Carried Maine.

Augusta Correspondence N. Y. Herald.

Beyond the arguments on the stump, distribution of political literature, bull dozing of employes and United States pensioners, the Republicans employed a lever which was more powerful and effective than all others combined, viz.: money. They evidently had a large fund and they expended it judiciously and to the best advantage. It was raised at home, and the National committee gave permission to the State commitee to draw upon it for as large a sum as might be necessary to buy the State. All the Republican State and National officials were assessed 5 per cent. on their salaries, while all the candidates were mercilessly bled to raise an immense corruption fund. One of the mail route agents on the train from Bangor to Portland was assessed $42.50 on his salary of $850, and I suppose he paid it, for he is still running on the train, and that would not be possible had he refused. A country postmaster in this district, with a salary of $45, was forced to disgorge $2.25 as his share of the fund. Voters were bought in this city like sheep in the shambles, and the same was true of the other cities and many of the larger towns in the State. The price paid for votes varied, and was somewhat smaller than in former years. I am told that $5, $10, $15 and $20 were paid, and in some instances $25 and $30 and even as high as $45 were paid for a single vote in the close districts. The buying was carried on to some extent on both sides, but the Republicans had a fund fifty times as large as their opponents, and easily outstripped them in this race. It is an encouraging thought that after next year, if the biennial constitutional amendment be adopted, as now appears to be the case, the moral sense of the people will not be offended by the disgraceful spectacle of vote-buying but once in two years.

Sectional Floating Dock.

Wilmington Review, 11th.

Three sections of the Sectional Floating Dock of Messrs. Blossom & Evans are about completed, and on Monday it is thought a vessel will be put on them for repairs. The sections furnish 150 feet keel room, which is thought to be large enough or any vessel which comes to this port.

A SOURCE OF WEALTH.

A GLORIOUS FUTURE FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

The State to be Parceled out in Sections to form the Elevating Influence on Bread.

A friend of the NEWS relates a very good thing about "Mud Cut," giving a hint of how this much derided work of art that nature seems to have such a grudge against may prove the means of extinguishing the State debt, if not the State itself.

The gentleman in question lately came through the wonderful canon of Carolina, and standing on the car platform while the train waited, as usual, for the track to be put in order, he engaged in conversation with one of the overseers of the force employed in repairing damages. This man explained to him that in wet weather "Mud Cut" experienced a "slide" once or twice a week, and it therefore required a large force to clear away the avalanches. However, in dry weather the "slides" rarely occurred, but that the track rose regularly, from subterranean pressure, some three or four feet every twenty-four hours, and that a force of from forty to fifty men were detailed for the duty of daily—almost hourly—cutting down this "bulge," in order to keep the "Cut" passable. Even the lapse of an hour, so steady was the "bulge," would render the track unsafe for passage, and this had been the case ever since the track was laid.

The gentleman was about to inquire as to the causes of this upward growth of the road-bed, which consequently created a corresponding growth of the taxes, when an ungainly-looking citizen, who had evidently "been there before," interrupted.

"Mister," he said, "this yer's the out humpiest railroad you ever seed. She just gits up and humps herself."

"Well, my friend, what makes it just get up and hump itself? That is what I want to know."

"Exactly," said he. "What is this stuff you put in biskits to make 'em hump up?"

Some one suggested yeast; another soda.

"Sody; sody; that's it. Well gentlemen, my 'pinyun is that thar's a big sody mine down under this yer mounting you see slidin' down hill, and that is what makes this yer road get up and hump herself."

Here is a field for speculation, and should the surmise of the citizen prove true the gold and corundum mines of the State will sink into insignificance. By sinking a shaft at the "Cut" the past troubles will be obviated, for as fast as the soda is taken out the debris from the hillside can be conducted into the excavation by a series of skillfully contrived chutes and thus avoid the cost of digging and carrying away the earth as well as preventing the delaying of trains.

And the soda! A great branch of industry is at once opened to our suffering people. The sound of the pick and the shovel will be heard throughout the fortunate section, and the diamond diggings of Africa will bear no comparison with the soda mines of "Mud Cut! From the outermost bounds of the earth will come up the plaintive wail for Carolina soda. In every grocery will be found packages with brilliantly-colored labels bearing the legend, "Pure Soda, from the celebrated Mud Cut Soda Mines." That bane of health, dyspepsia, will be driven from the land—hot biscuit will be discarded and healthy light bread will supply its place. The freightage over the Western North Carolina road will be the means of reimbursing the immense outlay that has already been made, and glorious "Mud Cut" will indeed be a blessing in disguise.

Then let paeans of praise be sounded in honor of the inventor of "Mud Cut," and in the eons yet to come his name will be as a household word throughout the State.

Attempt to Break Jail.

Warrenton News, 12th.

On Monday last two desperate villains, Henry Johnston and John Alston, confined in the jail of this county, made a desperate but futile attempt to regain their liberty. An old colored man named George Price carries the prisoners their meals every day, and on Monday when he carried dinner to Johnston and Alston, they both attacked him, threw him down and made their way out of the cell, into the passage. Delia Price, who waited at the outer door for George, seeing what was going on inside gave the alarm, and Emmett Parish, the jailor, hurried into the jail with a revolver in hand. As soon as he was inside, one of the desperadoes, having been concealed behind the door, rushed quickly upon him, seized his hand and endeavored to wrench the pistol from him. The other one called out to him "shoot the damned rascal." Assistance soon arrived before any one was hurt, and the two negroes, Johnson and Alston, were secured and are now safely ironed. The outer door is always bolted outside when George goes in, and there was no chance for the prisoners to escape, but they seem not to have known this fact.

John Sherman's Crooked Tracks.

Columbus (O.) Democrat.

John Sherman introduced in 1868 in the United States Senate, the first bill to stop the coinage of the silver dollar. In 1876 he appeared in the same body as the advocate of the silver dollar. John has made some mighty crooked tracks in his political career.

The People Know.

Southern Home.

Hon. George Howard, of Edgecombe, declares that he is not, and never expects to be, a candidate for the Governorship. This is one name less for the Democracy to consider. We doubt not though Judge Howard would accept the nomination if tendered him. The people know what such declinations thus far in advance of the convention generally mean.

Broke her Leg.

Warrenton Gazette, 12th.

The little daughter of Dr. R. D. Fleming had the misfortune of breaking her leg just above the ankle last Sunday. She was out in the grove at her grandfather's Mr. John Watson, and attempted to climb up a cart body that was leaning against a tree. In doing so, she pulled the body over and it fell on her, breaking her leg.

Be wise and happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and family with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER - 14, 1879.

THE Salisbury Watchman's argument on the omission of the Speakers to sign the School Bill is certainly a most unique specimen of logic. It only lacks in one point—a failure to convince.

EDITOR DEAKE, of the Bakersville Republican, is writing up Raleigh and its business advantages. He classes it as the most enterprising city of the South, and gives a glowing description of the tobacco warehouses and wholesale stores.

THE New York Star is obscured by a Robinson cloud just now. It skipped around like a meteor of mininum size before the nomination, but the effort was too much. Not much corporation printing in prospective for the feeble luminary.

THE Tribune let up on the cipher dispatches just before the news was received of Governor Robinson's renomination and took up new charges against Mr. Tilden in relation to some "railroad wrecking" business. Mr. Tilden is certainly becoming too formidable for Republican chances of success.

THE Asheville Citizen expends a column or more of type in a lame attempt to excuse the forgetfulness of Messrs. Robinson and Moring in relation to the School Bill, and winds up classing the bill as of but little importance, anyway. But this does not remedy the matter or alter the facts in the least.

A HANCOCK boom has been started in the South, helped on by General Chalmers of Mississippi, Alexander H. Stephens, of Georgia, and the Baltimore Gazette. The Gazette is firmly of the belief that if the South will take up the cry for Hancock, the Northern Democrats will second the motion, and the boom will prove "the biggest thing of the season."

UNLESS there has been a recent change the Philadelphia Record is wrong when it states that the assessment of twelve and one-half cents a month on each enlisted man of the regular army is not compulsary. This sum has been deducted from the soldiers' pay each pay-day for years, and is so authorized by the army regulations. It is understood that in case he becomes infirm he is entitled to the benefits of the Soldiers' Home; but the stoppage is certainly compulsory.

THE regular Democracy of this city do not attempt to dictate to anybody. They do not attempt to force any particular nominee on the convention. But they do most earnestly object to having forced upon them the one candidate who has prostituted his high office in a bitter and vindictive effort to ruin and disrupt their organization. To disregard this protest would to throw away the State next year as well as now.—New York Star.

Very true; Mr. Kelly, and his irregulars tried to dictate, but failed in the attempt. And now the irregulars are leaving Tammany to join the regulars. Articles marked with a blue pencil don't have much weight down this way.

A RUMOR from Washington discloses a nice little plan which the Democrats had for securing control of a majority of the State delegations in the House, so as to be prepared for the emergency of no election for President by the people. They were going to decide to unseat Congressman Orth, of Indiana, and put his Democratic contestant in his seat. This would enable them to control the Indiana delegation without Orth. If the California delegation had been Democratic, the Democrats would then have a majority of the State, and could elect their candidate. As it is, the Indiana delegation will only enable them to tie the House, for each party will then have nineteen States. There is no direct provision in the Constitution for such an emergency, and the result would be a hopeless deadlock, the only end of which would be to make Vice-President Wheeler President on the 4th of March following.—New York Tribune.

Well, as the Republicans are to sweep the country what odds does it make about securing the odd State? However, the matter need not trouble the Tribune; the election will never get get into the House. The Republicans, if they win, will have to carry their point without cheating.

ON the first page will be found a short sketch of the troubles of a colored church, in Kingston, Ulster county, N. Y. The collector's share in the business is decidedly comical; but there is another thing to be considered. That section may fairly be classed as a stronghold of Methodism. Within sixty miles of the unfortunate church there are yearly held three immense camp meetings, viz.: Sing Sing, Phillipsport and Neelytown; and yet the pastor of the humble African church cannot get money enough to support him while preaching the Word. And in the same city of Kingston the white congregations of the same creed can build handsome edifices with all the new improvements such as church parlors, etc., and pay fancy salaries to much-lauded ministers whose faith may not be near as deep and abiding as that of the humble colored preacher. And yet the North loves the negro—a long way off, however, as he serves a better purpose in the South in a political view.

THE Atlanta Constitution does not seem to appreciate the New York Tribune's grand effort to expose the rascally Southern States in their outrageous repudiation schemes—that its New York contemporary's attempt to tell the truth was a flat failure. And probably the Constitution is about correct in its views. It says:

The story the Tribune tells is plaintively inaccurate in some particulars, but the fact that Georgia has refused to pay a considerable amount of bogus bonds issued under the auspices of elements at once truly loyal and vigorously speculative is not to be denied. If it be repudiation to refuse to pay a bond illegally issued by unauthortzed persons, then Georgia is quite a repudiator on a small scale. The object of the Tribune in getting together this tale of woe is laughably partisan. First, the laborious, but worthy editor sets out to prove that the Southern people have a knack of repudiating their debts. Then he will prove that they control the Democratic party. Consequently, he will argue, when the Democratic party gets into power the South will move to repudiate the national debt!

The debt of Georgia in 1860 was $2,-070,750; in 1878 $11,144,500. Consequently Georgia's reconstructionists must have used up nearly $9,000,000 in getting the machinery of government in motion. North Carolina will probably catch it to-day and we shall try to discover how our debt was increased $35,-000,000 from 1860 to 1878.

THE CONSTRUCTIVE VETO.

A correspondent informs us that the Supreme Court of Nebraska, in a case like our school bill where one of the speakers failed to sign a bill which the Legislature passed, have held that it is a law without such signature. The case is Cottrell vs. The State, decided last month and will appear in the next volume of Nebraska Reports. The only other case of the kind which has ever been decided in the United States, our correspondent adds, is that of the Commissioner vs. Higginbotham, 17 Kansas Reports, where the Kansas Court holds that the failure of a speaker to sign could not avail to veto or nullify a bill passed by the representatives of the people.

In those two States the constitution on this subject is worded like ours, and their courts are evidently of the opinion that the Legislature, and not the two Speakers, make the laws.

The NEWS is not a lawyer, but it has participated in and felt the popular revolt against the doctrine laid down by our Supreme Court, for which they have taken six months to find a reason, that any two men by their actual refusal, or by their possive neglect, can nullify, veto and set aside an act passed by the General Assembly.

The NEWS views with unaffected alarm, the enunciation of a doctrine so foreign to the spirit of republican institutions and so antagonistic to popular rights.

The principle is far more wide reaching than the present case. The court broadly laid down the doctrine that if the Speakers, or either of them, refused or failed to sign a bill, it was not a law without such signature and that the court had no power to compel the performance of duty by a Speaker. If this is the law in North Carolina, either Speaker can at his choice set at defiance the public will and the votes of the Legislature, as has been done in this very case.

The right of a free people to make their own laws is blood-bought, and when the representatives of the people have enacted a law, a judge-made constructive veto (for it does not exist in the Constitution) that any man or two men can by their refusal, or by their neglect, nullify, veto and make of none effect the solemn act and law of the General Assembly is the most dangerous stab ever aimed at republican institutions.

In importance, the cases of State vs. Miller, State vs. Driver, and others once criticised so freely by the State press are trivial. The very genius of our institutions is against the assumption on the part of any one to say to the free and sovereign people of North Carolina, "your representatives may enact laws but without my assent and signature they shall be only as so much blank paper."

There is much in this question. The precedent in the most dangerous to liberty that has ever been set in the history of North Carolina, and we measure our words.

The NEWS would be recreant to its duty if it did not vindicate the right of the people to enact their own laws without asking the assent, or leave, or signature of any one.

The question merits discussion. Its importance demands discussion and the NEWS opens its columns to those who wish to be heard.

A Usurpation of Power.

Chicago Tribune.

Secretary John Sherman has again demonstrated his bitter hostility to the bi-metallic system by refusing to receive silver dollars from the National banks in shipment of their dues to the government or in redemption of their notes! This order is an outrageous usurpation of power. What right has John Sherman to take any such position? It is not for him to determine what shall be legal tender in this country. That has already been determined by the higher authority of Congress and the people, and it includes the standard silver dollars. The Secretary of the Treasury has no more right to refuse this legal-tender than has the humblest citizen of the Republic. He has been placed in his present office to obey the laws, and not to nullify or defy them. The pretended fear that the silver dollars will all return to the Treasury is mere sham. Suppose they do, can't they be paid out again? Gold returns to the Treasury. Is it, for that reason, not to be received from the banks in redemption of their notes? But it is trifling with the intelligence of the people to give as reason for refusing silver for redemption of banknotes that it will return to the Treasury. There are only forty millions of silver dollars all told in the United States, and the annual disbursements of the Government alone are seven times that amount. The simple fact is, that Mr. John Sherman is determined to discriminate against the silver dollar and bring it into discredit by every means at his command. In the present instance, however, he has exceeded the functions of his office, and, if he does not quickly recede from the illegal stand he has taken, he may be called to account by Congress in the manner provided for high officers who usurp power that does not pertain to their positions.

Silently he Stole Away.

Buffalo Express.

To say that Mr. Fenton went down to Saratoga with the purpose of doing his utmost to defeat Mr. Cornell, as some do say, is to credit the distinguished statesman with very little power or precious little courage. The cold fact is that Mr. Fenton did not even vote against Cornell. He went into the convention as a delegate, slipped out before the roll was called for the votes, and left Saratoga before the proceedings were closed. Yet nobody molested him. Nor was anybody surprised.

Not so Very Incredible.

Philadelphia Record,

The report that President Hayes intends to make a speech in Ohio during the present canvass in that State is incredible. The spectacle of Vice-President Wheeler presiding over a State Convention and delivering a partisan speech of the bloody-shirt order outraged public sentiment generally, and it is to be hoped there is nothing worse in store.

The School Bill.

Louisburg Times, 12th.

Upon the action of the late President of the Senate, and Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Times has had nothing to say. And it proposes to say but little now. While we deem it one of the most important laws enacted by the assembly, and which if it had been signed at the proper time, would be of great benefit to the people of the State of North Carolina, yet we are of the opinion that the President and Speaker had no right to place their signatures thereto, unless they did it during the session of the legislature. The Democratic party will not be injured in the least. It is the negligence of only two members of the party, who failed to do their duty. They are to blame and not the party.

It Doesn't Work.

Philadelphia Times.

So long as Colonel A. Y. Harper, the howling dervish of the Okolona States, restricted himself to the use of pen and paper, he had a fair audience, the organs all assisting. When he started in with his chin artillery on the Chicago rostrum last Monday night, an audience of one hundred persons greeted him in a hall built to accommodate two thousand. At this rate, it will take Harper a long while to talk the nation into the coat-tail pocket of Jefferson Davis.

VEGETINE

Purifies the Blood, Renovates and Invigorates the Whole System,

ITS MEDICINAL QUALITIES ARE

Alterative, Tonic, Solvent and Diuretic.

Vegetine is made exclusively from the juices of carefully-selected barks, roots and herbs, and so strongly concentrated that it will effectually eradicate from the system every taint of Scrofula, Cancerous Humor, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Syphilitic Diseases Canker, Faintness at the Stomach, and all diseases that arise from impure blood. Sciatica, Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gout, and Spinal Complaints, can only be effectually cured through the blood.

For Ulcers and Eruptive Disease the Skin, Pustules, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, Tetter, Scaldhead, and Ringworm, VEGETINE has never failed to effect a permanent cure.

For Pains in the Back, Kidney Complaints Dropsy, Female Weakness, Leucorrhœa, arising from internal ulceration, and uterine diseases and General Debility, Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organ, allays inflammation, cures ulceration, and regulates the bowels.

For Catarrh, Dyspepsia, Habitual Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Headache, Piles, Nervousness, and General Prostration of the Nervous System, no medicine has ever given such perfect satisfaction as the Vegetine. It purifies the blood, cleanses all of the organs, and possesses a controlling power over the nervous system.

The remarkable cures effected by Vegetine have induced many physicians and apothecaries whom we know to prescribe and use it in their own families.

In fact, Vegetine is the best remedy yet discovered for the above diseases, and is the only reliable BLOOD PURIFIER yet placed before the public.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best Pastor of M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative powers of Vegetine.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1, 1874.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir, We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reducee that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

Alone Amid the Rye.

(This poem, from Sunday Afternoon for August, has an added interest, as being by Mrs. D. H. R. Goodale, mother of Elaine and Dora Goodale, the child poets, who have become so widely known of late.)

Amid the golden stocks of rye,
In dreamy peace, content I lie,
  Steeped in the life warm summer sun,
The equal heir of earth and sky.

The languid breeze that stirs the grain,
(Now gold, now bronze, now gold again)
  Ripples the current of my blood,
And stirs quick fancies in my brain.

Sweet summer-scented wind caress!
This tender touch, this gentle stress
  More deeply move than hands that cling,
And passion fevered lips that press!

My soul, doubt strung, with question-ings torn,
In shadowy conflicts wounded, worn,
  Leaves dreary quest, and longs to share
The golden sense of Life new born.

The seed within the furrow strewn,
From blade to ear, from ear to corn,
  One life envolves, distinct and clear,
Through perfect sequence, perfect grown.

But human hearts that burn aspire,
The fruitage miss of strong desire—
  All paths we try, yet wander wild,
Forever climbing, never higher!

O Heart! be still at Nature's feet,
O prisoned wings that ceaseless beat,
  Stir me no more with tender pain,
But leave me to her influence sweet.

Touched with thy fire, celestial Sun,
My tingling pulses swifter run;
  I bask and glow, with ardor filled,
And dream once more the contest won!

Four Million Basket of Peaches.

Wilmington (Del.) Every Evening.

The peach season practically will close next week, shipments continuing until October 1st in small lots only. So far this season about 4,100 cars, containing about 500 baskets each, or a total of 2,500,000 baskets, have been shipped to market from the peninsula over the Delaware, and Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroads. There are yet to be shipped about 300,000 baskets more, making, with the 400,000 baskets previously carried to New York by water routes, and about 700,000 baskets to Philadelphia and Baltimore, an aggregate shipment from the peninsula region of nearly 4,000,000 baskets. Smocks now going to market have not been as good as was expected. A few white cling-stones may come from the upper peninsula next week.

The Tax on Fertilizers.

Statesville Landmark.

While in Richmond last week we interviewed the President of one of the most prosperous and popular fertilizer companies in the Union touching this tax. We asked him if he objected to the fertilizer tax. He answered: "No, I do not object to the tax, but would be very sorry to see it repealed. Since it was inaugurated it has had the tendency to drive out of your State all small companies and give us a wider field for operation. When this tax was levied we not only raised the price of our fertilizer enough to cover it but we added on a liberal per cent. besides. I thought, and suggested to the company, that the lack of competition would warrant us in this move. Our sales last year and the year before in your State were larger than ever before, notwithstanding the advanced price. So you will see that the ox that is gored in this case is the farmer himself."

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have speedily and permanently cured Humors of the Skin and Scalp of Children and Infants affected since birth.

The treatment prescribed in such cases is mild doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a perfectly safe yet powerful blood purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA, the great skin cure. The CUTICURA SOAP should be the only soap applied to the diseased skin for cleansing purposes.

Humor on a Child

Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, My little son, two years of age, has had a humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of the face, the child ear, and side of the head. It must have itched and irritated him a great deal, as he scratched the surface all the time, no matter what was applied. I used many remedies by advice of friends and my physician without benefit until I found CUTICURA, which immediately allayed the itching and inflammation, and entirely cured him. Respectfully, JOHN L. SURRY.
With Walworth Manufacturing Co.
BOSTON, April 15, 1878.

NOTE. Once cured, the skin may be rendered soft and fair by using the Cuticura Soap exclusively for toilet or nursery purposes.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.

More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.

Fred. Rohrer, Esq., Cashier Stock Growers' National Bank, Pueblo, Colo ado, writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."

J. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated May 28: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleaned the face of sores. I have recommend it to several, and Dr. Plant has ordered it for them."

M. M. Chick, Esq., 41 Franklin St., Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctors call Eczema. We have tried 'most everything, and at last have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and we feel very happy."

Prickly Heat.

Incidental to the Texan Climate.

Messrs. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, as some people call it. I am noising it about.
Yours truly, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY.
MASON, Texas, Sept. 22, 1878.

CUTICURA is a most valuable external application. It heals all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is ably assisted, in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended to mothers for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is Toilet as well as Medicinal, and is the most fragrant and refreshing Soap for the nursery and bath of any these prepared.

Parents have our assurance that these remedies contain nothing injurious to the youngest infant, evidence of which may be found in the certificates of Dr. Hayes and Prof. Merrick accompanying each remedy.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

TUTT'S PILLS

SYMPTOMS OF A
TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

CONSTIPATION.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:
"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:
"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

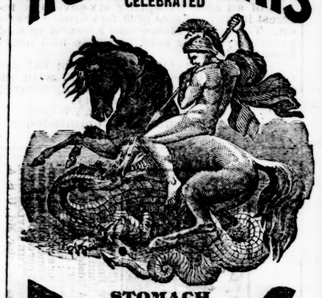
HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED



STOMACH
BITTERS

Fever and Ague is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely as the Bitters are adopted, so surely will the individual who adopts this precaution be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent, and who will venture to gainsay its claims to the first place among family medicines.

Weather Report.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 13.

For the South Atlantic States partly cloudy weather with occasional rains; variable winds, generally shifting to northwesterly; stationary or lower temperature followed by rising barometer.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

——Ah, now doth Maud and Henry,
Within the golden grove joke;
The while the so-called humorist
Evolves the festive joke.
Which he evolved last year.

——Cotton at 11 cents.

——A slight runaway yesterday.

——One marriage license issued yesterday.

——No services at the Second Presbyterian church to-day.

——The Templetons play "Pinafore" in Charlotte to-morrow night.

——Several hundred bales of cotton in yesterday, and Exchange place presented a busy appearance.

——Sixty-two thousand dollars of old bonds surrendered for exchange yesterday at the State Treasury.

——The last will and testament of John K. Moore, was propounded yesterday before Judge Upchurch.

——Rev. Dr. Wilson will occupy the pulpit of the Edenton Street Methodist Church both morning and evening.

——Rev. Doctor M. T. Sumner, of Alabama, will occupy the pulpit of the Salisbury street Baptist church this morning at 11 a. m.

——Professor Lincke will soon open a gynasium in the Admas' Hall. He proposes to cover a large space in the middle of the hall with saw dust and fix up a first class gynasium.

——Mr. J. A. Robinson, editor and proprietor of the Winston Leader has been spending a few days of recreation in this city. The Leader is one of the leading newspapers in the West.

——Professor Slater, having returned from the springs, will open a dancing school here next week. The Professor is a good instructor and those who wish to learn the art of tripping the light fantastic toe, had better see him at once.

——Of all domestic fowls the goose is longest lived. One died a few days ago near Baltimore that was hatched in 1824, on the day that LaFayette visited that city, and during the 55 years of its life its owner, now living at an advanced age, believes that she has realized from feathers and goslings between $500 and $600. There isn't any of "those species" here, however. They live forever, but the first man is to be found yet who was ever profited a cent by their "culture." Unless, indeed he wanted to worry his neighbor to death. Ugh! what a nuisance!

Found Dead.

A young man the son of Rufus Pully, of Barton's Creek township was found dead with his head stuck into a pile of cotton seed and his heels sticking up. The coroner yesterday went out to investigate the matter.

Masonic.

Hiram Lodge No. 40, A. F. & A. M., holds its regular communication to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. Every member thereof is expected to be present, as matters of great importance will come up. All Masons are cordially invited.

Unmailable Letters.

The following letters lie dead in the post office: Miss Addie Duggan, Tarboro; no stamp. Miss Fannie Broughton, Asheville; one cent stamp. Messrs. Ellis & Harsay, Richmond; no stamp. Mary Ann Hitchinson, Pittsboro; two cent stamp.

A Strange Accident.

On yesterday, the Coroner was informed of a sudden and singular accident, happening in Barton's Creek Township, about nine and a half miles northwest of the city. The particulars are as follows:

On Thursday afternoon last, a young son of Mr. Rufus Pulley, aged about six years, was told by his father to go into the field to pick cotton, of which business the little fellow took particular delight. Instead of going directly to the field, however, he went into a house in which was piled up a considerable quantity of seed cotton for the purpose of hiding, as he sometimes did, from his little sister. After looking for him some time, the girl told her father that she could not find Lonny, (the boy's name). The father went into the house to look for him, and saw his legs sticking up out of a pile of cotton. He pulled him out and found him dead. The little boy had made a deep hole in the large bank of cotton, and went into it headforemost, and it being deeper than he expected, he could not release himself and smothered to death. The Coroner, after investigating the matter, concluded not to disinter the body and hold a regular inquest, being fully satisfied that the child came to its death from an entire accident.

Donations to the North Carolina Agricultural Society.

The following are donations for the 19th Annual State Fair, October 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th, acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Secretary, in behalf of the Executive Committee.

Five squares "Painted" Metallic Shingles, $30.00. Two gallons Paint and calamined nails for the same, given by the Iron Clad Manufacturing Company, 22 Cliff street, New York.

We have in this handsome contribution a novel article to this market. It consists of iron shingles so made as to dovetail with beautiful precision, and form a neat and attractive roof, which is of course fire proof. We invite the attention of all interested in building to the sample work that will be exhibited at the fair. They are furnished also with ridge pole, and short shingles for eaves, and may be painted to suit any style of architectural work. The value attached is not wholesale price.

Six Pearl shirts, given by S. S. Sternberger, Philadelphia, Pa., through L. Rosenthal & Co., Raleigh.

We have been indebted to this firm on several occasions for a contribution from their stock. The "Pearl Shirts" are highly esteemed.

One case London Condition Food, $12.00, given by John S. Knapp, commission merchant and manufacturer's agent, 69 S. Charles street, Baltimore. This article is highly recommended by owners of stock well-known in the South as a preparation to keep horses and cattle in fine and healthy condition. We are obliged to Mr. Knapp for an additional supply for distribution among farmers as named by him. Every article of this kind that is really meritorious, does its part in the good work affected by our fair.

AH HOOK'S FUNERAL.

Gospel Hyms Sung at a Chinese Funeral in the Black Hills.

Black Hills News.

The Chinese funeral yesterday was a grand and imposing affair. The funeral ceremonies were held in Chinatown, and various incantations were performed over the baked pig, chicken, rice and arak, and was viewed with much interest by many of our citizens. Six high priests of the Chinese order of Free Masons were robed in white vestments, and all the mourners had strips of white and red cloth tied around their arms. A band was in attendance, and during the ceremony would discourse some of the late and most popular airs, such as Yankee Doodle, Shoofly, etc., which, although not being exactly the American style of funeral music, seemed to please the Celestials mightily Contrary to their usual custom the hog, chicken, etc., were not taken to the grave, as the disgraceful scrambling of the rabble on the last occasion decidedly proved to the mourners that the departed spirit had little show for provisions, it being carried away by the mob, consequently it was left in the joss house of Chinatown. At the grave an immense crowd of spectators had gathered long before the funeral cortege arrived, who awaited with eager expectancy to see the last rites; but, as above stated, they were greatly disappointed with the exception of burning some incense, and the deceased's clothes and gripsack. Notwithstanding an officer was at the grave, the mourners were greatly crowded, and room was with difficulty made for workmen to fill up the grave. Conspicuous among those present was a man with a copy of "Gospel Hymns" in his hands, seated on the railing around the adjoining grave, and many of the uninitiated were anxiously waiting for him to open the ceremony, but he kept on his perch until the affair was over, without making a sign.

Brickmaking on Sunday.

London Telegraph.

Wonders will never cease. A supernatural appearance is reported from Ermland, which must have been more astonishing than the most inexplicable of the mysteries laid before us by our most dexterous conjurers. On a recent Sunday morning an impious brickmaker of Schronbruck, near Allenstein, was feeding his kiln with fuel. Just at the hour of holy mass he happened to look in at the open furnace door, and in the very middle of the flames he perceived a beautiful maiden with a child in her arms. Turning round, in obedience to an irresistible impulse, he saw, standing close behind him, a strange, black-bearded fellow, leering hideously, and holding tightly between his teeth an incandescent cigar.

With singular presence of mind the perplexed brickmaker reverted to the kiln door, and cast more fuel into the furnace. Upon this the radiant maiden vanished, and the infant suddenly split into two halves. At that moment the bells of the neighboring church rung out in notification that the elevation of the host was then taking place within the sacred edifice. Immediately the evil looking individual, in whom the brickmaker had instinctively recognized the Father of Lies, disappeared with an angry growl, and the overwrought brickmaker fell down in a swoon, from which he only recovered to forswear brickmaking on the Sabbath forevermore. It is especially interesting to notice among the details of this spiritual manifestation that Satan has so far kept pace with the habits of comparatively modern times as to have taken to smoking. We presume that his favorite brand is labeled "Infernals," and is distinguished from more mortal weeds by an uncommonly full flavor.

The Tax on Fertilizers.

Statesville Landmark.

In establishing this Agriculture Department the first and most important consideration was as to how a revenue should be raised for its support. Here the foolish idea, suggested by Commissioner Polk, who was at that time a member of the legislature, if we mistake not, of making the fertilizer manufacturer support the Department by levying an oppressive tax of five hundred dollars on all brands sold in the State. In conversation with Governor Vance, soon after the bill was passed, the writer discussed its defects, and remarked that the law would rather have a tendency to crush the farmer than benefit him, as certain wealthy fertilizer companies would form a monopoly and raise the scale of prices. This prediction, to the sorrow of the farmer, has proven too true. That it should be so is perfectly reasonable. The profit on fertilizers, to our personal knowledge, like all other commodities at this time, is short. The reliable companies are conducted strictly on the principle of live and let live. They cannot afford to pay a tax of five hundred dollars a year and make no change in their prices.

Counting the Foreign Mails.

Acting Postmaster-General Tyner issued on Thursday the following order: "That an actual count be made semi-annually upon the first seven days of October and April in each year by the postmasters at all United States exchange postoffices for foreign mails of the number of letters, postal cards, newspapers and other printed matter, business papers and samples of merchandise exchanged in the mails with foreign countries, and the amounts of prepaid and unpaid postage thereon, with such details as are required for statistical purposes, and to supply the internal bureau at Berne with the particulars annually called for by that bureau, and the superintendent of foreign mails is directed to prepare the necessary blanks and instructions for the guidance of the United States exchange offices in taking and reporting the results of said count."

The Chisholm Murder Trial

DEKALB, Miss., Sept. 11.—In the case of Henry J. Gully, for the murder of Cornelia Chisholm, the defense yesterday afternoon introduced a number of of witness to prove the character of defendant for peace. The defense then closed its case. This morning the jury visited the jail and examined the marks made by the gunshots in the doors and walls of that building. After this the State produced a witness in rebuttal to prove that the lock on the door at the head of the stairway in the jail had been changed since the shooting occurred. In the afternoon the argument for the prosecution was opened by District Attorney Ford, presenting the theory of the prosecution. He was followed by Thomas H. Woods, of Meridian, and Colonel A. B. Meek for the defense. Judge Joshua H. Morris, of Vicksburg, closed the argument for the prosecution, the argument being limited to two hours on each side, The case was then given to the jury.

Bad Times in Europe.

In a London letter to the New York Sun Mr. Charles A. Dana gives interesting particulars relative to the crops in Europe, from which we gather that the prospect is even worse than has hitherto been supposed. Incessant rains, from the commencement of the season, have produced most disastrous results, especially in the British Islands. The best of the crops in the most favored localities are below the average. In many places the scarcity is such as to produce great suffering. As to the great cereal, wheat, it is poorest of all in England and Ireland, where the yield can not pay more than half its cost. In France there will be, perhaps, about three quarters of a good average. The same is true of Western Switzerland, Southern Gemany and Holland. But the United Kingdom will have to seek for its supplies elsewhere. In Russia, on the other hand, an immense wheat crop is reported.

What the Republican Voters Will Do.

Philadelphia Bulletin (Rep.)

Unless we are very much mistaken, the men and organs who are trying to cram bad nominations down the throats of the people, will find that the Republican voters of this city will claim and will exercise the right of voting against such nominations, no matter if they do bear the stamp of machine approval.

A Card to the Public.

We ask a careful reading and a thoughtful consideration of what follows. It is now over twelve years since a new cure for chronic diseases was discovered, known as "Compound Oxygen." The results which have followed its use up to this time have been so remarkable that it is beginning to attract the widest attention. Many intelligent physicians in various parts of the country have, after a careful investigation of its scientific and pathological claims, used it in cases where all other known remedies had failed, and with a success alike surprising to themselves and their patients. In Consumption, Catarrh, Asthma, Bronchitis, Headache, Dyspepsia, and the wide range of Neuralgic disorders from which so many suffer life-long tortures, it has rarely failed to give relief, and in many cases to make permanent cures. It is not a drug, but a new combination of the two elements which make up our common air, giving oxygen in excess. It is taken by inhalation, and cures by natural and orderly processes—first, by eliminating the excess of carbon which has accumulated in the systems and secondly, by a revitalization of all the great nervous centers. In order to give the public an opportunity to learn all about this new treatment, we have a prepared a carefully written Treatise, in which is presented a history of the discovery of "Compound Oxygen," a statement of its Scientific Basis and Mode of Action, and large details of the results which have followed the administration. This is sent free by mail to any one who may desire to receive it. Address Drs. Starkey & Palen, 1112 Girard Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

How to Grow Fat.

BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879. —The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDILL, ESQ., LYNCHBURG, VA.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," of the Seven Springs, in Washington county, Va., in relation to its efficacy for Liver Diseases, would you have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water;" also, a description of the symptoms and such other information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long-time sufferer with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,
WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Liver case" which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her 80th year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver Disease for 30 years, sometimes almost dying with pains in the back, breast, and heaviness of the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Mass" for her, and very soon after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, so old, seemingly in as good health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfactory, I am, very truly, A. WADDILL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.

Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that Green's August Flower has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all druggists.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, and is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand and without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

An old physician retired from practice had placed in his hands by an East Indian missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French or English. Sent by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Shearar, 149 Powers Block, Rochester, N. Y.
